INDEX 57

I N T R O D U C T I O N

"Missouri, Mother of the West," is an expression often seen. If it is true, then Jackson County is certainly the main door through which many of her children passed. The importance of Independence and Westport as outfitting stations for wagon trains to points west is well known. It is perhaps less well known that diaries of that period tell of thousands of persons encamped at these villages, waiting for the right time to set the wheels rolling toward California, Oregon, or Santa Fe. Doubtless many marriages were performed among the waiting multitudes. The records of some of those unions are here.

The records presented here were taken from three books of the oldest group held in the Independence office of the County Recorder of Deeds. In them, the old writing, full of flourishes, shaded letters and other devices peculiar to the penmanship of those days, has been a real challenge. The compiler has tried to leave as few doubtful points as possible in deciphering the old names. When the spelling was in doubt (and that was often), various sources were consulted. Interesting bits of information came to light, and it was decided to add these to the present volume in the hope that the information might be useful. (See "Notes from a Searcher's Files.") The sources consulted are found in the Bibliography.

The original spelling of all names has been retained, even though sources available today may show the old record to be faulty. The user of this volume will do well to examine all possible spellings of any name, remembering that recording a name by its sound was the common practice when many could not read nor spell their own names.

In this compilation, the names of all grooms have been arranged alphabetically. The name of the groom is first, followed by that of the bride and those of any witnesses. The name or number of the officiating minister or judge is next. These are keyed to a list which begins on page 43. In all cases, the marriage record is the report returned to the clerk by the person who performed the ceremony. The index omits the names of the grooms but does include all other persons referred to in this volume.

The Bibliography will prove very helpful to anyone who can consult these references. The compiler found that various census schedules (1830-1860) afforded the most help. (She consulted first the films of these schedules, turning later to the printed records when another opinion was felt to be needed.) Many persons will find further information in Vital Historical Records, especially if the family remained here for some years.

My thanks go to Mr. Bill Austin, our present Recorder of Deeds, a zealous guardian of the archives under his care. (And a bow in the direction of three of his office force who daily made the books available to me.)

THE CLERKS

Samuel C. Owens was first, assisted (beginning in February 1831) for a time by Russell Hicks as Deputy. The name of Samuel C. Owens appears last on December 31, 1841. Samuel D. Lucas was next, beginning in 1842. The name of John S. Lucas appears as Deputy in 1844, and Wm. Lucas was the Deputy Clerk in 1848.

A P P E N D I X

Levi Arter - Revolutionary War pensioner living in this county in 1831. (U.S. Pension Roll, in "Report of Sec'y. of War," 1835)

Baggler, Bugler, etc. - Henry Bugler, aged 36, a jailor born in Ireland, is found with wife Mary (36, also born in Ire.) and family on p. 262 of the 1860 census. Deed indexes also have it Bagler, etc.

Hugh Bales - There is no difficulty in reading this name. However, this compiler is convinced, after considerable investigation, that this is the Hugh Boyles who performed a number of marriages. In 1841 he and wife, Susan, sold 100 a. on the Little Blue River to the heirs of Willis Jepson.

Walter J. Bales - Originally a Quaker family of Pennsylvania, some migrated to N. Carolina and on to Tennessee, from which branch W. J. Bales came. (Editor's research.) The History of Jackson Co., Mo. (p.131), dates his arrival in this county as 1831. His son William was born here in 1834.

Polly Ann Barnett - Hiram Bowman's own record has Barnard as her name. No Barnard entries are in the 1850 census, but see p. 663 of that schedule.

Thos. J. Belcher - He is so listed on p. 621 of 1850 census -- aged 23, and his wife Rachel 18 years of age.

Rev. Jerome C. Berryman and wife Sarah (Cessna?) established Kickapoo Mission (1833) near Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. He was also a government teacher. (Mo. Hist. Review 4-241)

George Biggs and Levica Barnett - Boggs seems fairly clear, but p. 468 of census records him as Biggs. In Bride's Index (Recorder's office), she is called Lenca, which this Editor does not accept (nor did the census taker).

Milla Blecher - Probably Belcher was meant. Belcher occurs in the 1840 census.

Albert Gallatin Boone, g.son of Daniel, was a Westport merchant. Wm. Boggs, son of Gov. Lilburn W. Boggs, said A. G. Boone was a brother-in-law of the Governor. (Mo. Hist. Review, Vol. 6, 86-90)

W. Bouris & Ellen(---) The index most often used by clerks in the Recorder's office interprets these names as Burris and Sattoes. Sometime later Burris was changed to Bowers.

William Bowers - According to an item (un-paged) in the Native Sons' film, a witness to the Bowers - C. Montredie marriage was Wm. Mulkey, and the date of marriage is given as Dec. 28, 1847. These details do not agree with the official county record.

Hiram Bowman - Photostatic copy of original record of ceremonies performed by him is in Jackson Co. Hist. Society files. Bowman, his brother Ezekiel, and Abraham Bowman were in Logan Co., Ill., by 1824, having come from Ohio. (History of Logan Co., Ill., by L. B. Stringer, Pioneer Pub. Co., Chicago, 1911)

Thomas Bowman - The official record is in error here, as Hiram Bowman's own record includes the marriage supposedly performed by a Thomas Bowman.

Bright (see Wright)

Brock - The first appearing in deeds is James, who bought land in this county in 1832.

Geo. W. Buchanan - From Smythe Co., Va., he arrived on the Missouri frontier in 1838. The Jackson County Historical Society has his journal.

Henry B---man - This scrawl is interpreted in a later index as Bruneman, but above it is written Buniman. The 1850 census schedule affords no aid. The name Buneman appears in deeds.

Jonathan Cameron - Dr. Kate Gregg (p.247) gives the date of his death as Feb. 16, 1868, burial at Sibley cemetery.

Carrick - Earlier records can be found in Knox and Roane counties, Tenn.

Rev. Luther M. Carter - Methodist Episcopal minister sent to help educate the Delawares and Shawnees of this area. ("Westport Hist. Quarterly," vol. 1, p. 6. See for article by his daughter.)

Wilson Carey - Book D (Probate Court records) contains an agreement made in 1835 by which Kemp Carey gave all his property to Wilson C. in exchange for the support of the elder Carys.

Jonathan Chaney - Someone has printed the name Cheeney above what the compiler sees as Chaney. Census schedules give no help with either version.

Emilene Jane Chick (or Clucke?) - No Clucke family located in 1840 census, but one Chick family is shown then, with daughters of marriageable age.

Reuben Collins is listed as a wagoner with Sibley when the re-survey of the Santa Fe Trail was done in 1827. Dr. Kate Gregg gives the date of his marriage to Hannah Crisp as Mar. 4, 1826, but gives no source of her information. The 1828 date given in this compilation is so clear as to leave no doubt. (Gregg, The Road to Santa Fe, p. 245)

John T. Con - The 1850 census (p.688) records John T. Corn, aged 39, b. Va., with wife Soleta, aged 30, born in Tenn.

Cottel - Early settlers named Cottle are to be found in records of St. Charles County.

Cowherd - A family history by Newton states that Francis C. (wf. Sally) died in 1864 in Jackson County and that he descended from Maj. Francis C. of Orange Co., Va. (Editor's correspondence)

Jonathan Crabtree - Not located in either 1850 nor 1860 census schedule. See note on Reuben Crayton.

Reuben Crayton - P.571 of 1850 census lists him (aged 24, b. N. Y.) and Polina (22, b. Ky.) in family of G. Hedges.

William Cruse - Earlier records of this line are in Lafayette Co., Mo., and Sumner Co., Tenn. (Research of compiler)

Elizabeth Strode D. - Not found in 1850 census. Is indexed in a later index of marriages as Davis. However, Vital Historical Records (p.409) lists her burial under Dews.

Antoine Delorier - "Muleteer (1840) for the author, Francis Parkman" ("Westport Hist. Quart." August, 1966, p. 5.)

Francis Duckit - Several certificates for land claims in the St. Charles District issued to a Frances Duquette appear in "American State Papers"...as published in Vol. II (1834). They were issued in December of 1808 and later.

Winifred Dunn- aged 40 and born in Ireland, is found on p.247 of the 1850 census as head of a household with two Dunn children and other persons.

Fiffe - In 1842, one R. J. Fiffe executed a mortgage in favor of William Fiffe. (Deed Book N., p. 228)

Edgar Flannery - Probably this should have been recorded as Elijah Flannery. Edgar F. does not appear in any of the several sources consulted (including census records 1830-1860).

Nancy Flannery - On the same page of the old records from which these are taken, both the second and third marriages record the bride as Nancy Flannery. Is this a coincidence?

Flournoy - A Huguenot family found among earliest settlers of Manakin on the James River (Va.) See "The Huguenot," pub. by The Huguenot Society, Founders of Manakin, No. 5, 1931. The early ones in Jackson County were from the Kentucky branch.

Lewis Franklin - The pioneer settler of this family was his father, John Franklin, Sr., Revolutionary War soldier said to have been born in Chesterfield Co., Va. The family cemetery is at the side of Blue Mills Road (the first road laid out in the county)along which many of the early settlers took land. (Files of this compiler.)

Garrison, A. F. - A. F. Garrison, aged 39, a physician born in N. J., is on p. 649, 1850 census. His wife is recorded as Ann, 27, b. Ky.

S. Keer and J. Gibson - A newer index (Recorder's office) gives Jaunita (sic) as the bride's name. However, please note 1850 census record (p.533):Genetta (18) in house of Jas. Gibson (45, b. in Tenn.) and wife Elizabeth (40, b. in Mo.)

Wm. L. Gorden (a physician aged 36, b. Tenn.), his wife, Zelpha (aged 22, b. Va.), and five children are listed on p. 672 of the 1850 census. (Then what looks like "Doe" in the minister's return must be "Doc." Ed.)

T. Graham and Sarah A. Finch - Graham's statement in "Oregon Donation Land Claims" (Vol. 3, claim 2004) gives date of marriage as Sept. 2, 1848.

Grinter - A newer index lists him as Perry Grinter and gives the bride as Sarah Moon. However, the 1850 census (p.599) finds them in the household of Travis G. Moore. Moon is a matter of deciphering old writing. This compiler feels that Moore is more apt to be correct here.

E. Reed and Polly Gwinn(?) - A Guinn family appears in the 1850 census. The name Gannin does not appear. Gannin is the version used in the Recorder's index.

Isom (Isham) Harris - No explanation found for the two entries nor for different dates.

Hays - The will of Boon Hays, probated (1851) in Jackson County, names his children: Louisa (Deering) "now dec'd.," Zurilda (McMurtrey),Elandia (Chick), Miriam (McMurtrey), Mary (Hedges), and Hays boys named Linville, Amazon, Samuel, and Upton. Witnesses: P. M. Chouteau, B. F. Thompson, and Ed Price. (Deed Book S, p. 394)

Nicholas Helser - Nicholas Holcer, a wagon maker born in Germany, aged 45, is recorded on p. 543 of the 1850 census.

William Hensley - Name looks more like Handley or Hundley. However, Wm. Hensley's household in 1850 census (p.638) shows a wife Mary, the oldest child aged 7, and two persons named Mitchell.

Henry Hill - A long autobiography is on p. 9 of "Old Men of Clay Co., Mo."

Charles Horning and wf., Mary A., are on p. 457 of the 1850 census schedule. His age is given as 35; birthplace, Prussia.

Anthony Housley - Name is not clear in oldest record. Most likely version is above, based on p. 27 of 1840 census, where A. Housley is listed with one child under 5 years of age.

Asberry Humphreys - P. 700 of census schedule for 1850 has him as aged 22, born in N. Car., with wife Elizabeth (18, born N. Car.) and Putnam, a male six months old.

Igo - This unusual name is in early deeds of Sullivan Co.,Tenn.

John Javins (29, b. Va.) and Evelyn (25, b. Ky.), both in the Jacob Ragin family, are found on p. 484 of the 1850 census schedule.

Jepson - In 1849 the land of Willis Jepson was ordered sold to settle a suit among his heirs. Deed Book S, p.343, lists these heirs as Patsy Ann Milliken and Wm. G. Milliken, along with these named Jepson:- James, William, Ephraim J., Cynthia, Orson, Samuel, and Jesse M.

Amasa Jones - "Formerly of Harmony Mission, he organized the Presbyterians (of St. Clair Co.) in the 1840's." (From "Osceola, Land of Osage River Lore," by Floyd Shoemaker, in Missouri Historical Review for July, 1960, p. 330.)

Rev. Leander Kerr - "Chaplain at Ft. Leavenworth." (Mo. Hist. Review, Apr. 1964, p.325.)

Jacob Kishler, Kishlear, etc. - According to a descendant of Rev. John McKinney, this pastor had a step-son named Jacob Kishler, son of Ann Elisa (------) K. (Editor's files).

Records of Probate Court show Jacob Kishler's estate before the court in 1858. Heirs named are Sarah B.(the widow), John H., Martha, Samuel, Wm. Gun, Alice, Joseph, James and Buchanan. Sarah's petition before Probate Court (1867) mentions another heir (Breckenridge, aged 9) and states that her two older sons were lost in the War.

Krow or Kron - Indexed as Kron in a newer index (Recorder's office). Census records of this county (1850) do not help, nor do deeds.

Abner Landers (or Sanders) - The flourishes around the initial letters make a decision here very hard. Years ago, some clerk decided on Saunders. Ye Ed finds no source to support either version.

Moses Lard - The Kansas City Times for Sept. 30, 1867, has an article on this noted preacher; who also edited religious publications while living in Clay and Clinton Counties.

Zenas Leonard - Born in Clearfield Co., Pa., he arrived at Fort Osage in 1831. For an interesting account of his connection with fur trade and traders of note, etc., see Fred L. Lee's article, "Fur Trader, Early Sibley Merchant," in Jackson County Historical Society Journal, issue of March, 1965. The papers of Leonard are held by the State Historical Society, Columbia, Missouri.

Clement Lessert was a government interpreter for the Kaw Indians.("Westport Hist. Quart.," Nov., 1966, p. 14).

Johnston Likins and Isaac McCoy are recorded in adjoining households in the 1830 census of Howard Co., Mo. (p. 167).

Lobb Cumberland Church - one of the oldest in Western Missouri, dating back to 1834. (K. C. Star, June 3, 1967)

Mr. Locke - Dr. John Lock, physician aged 30 and born in Ky., is recorded on p. 596 of the 1850 census. His wife is given as Mary A., aged 19, also born in Kentucky. They are found in the household of Samuel H. Hamilton.

Sarah Lougate - The name Lougate is not in the 1850 census, but it does contain a family named Liggett.

Abraham McClellan - Presiding Judge of first County Court. From Roane Co., Tenn., he arrived about 1819 with kin named Walker, Toomey, etc. His wife, Jane, was sister to Joel, Joseph, John, and Samuel Walker, all among earliest settlers around Fort Osage, near which these McClellans lie in Sibley Cemetery. A. McClellan was State Treasurer during term of Gov. L. W. Boggs. (Editor's research)

Barbara McClellan and Richard Powell - Their divorce was granted by an Act of the Legislature (1832-33). "Mo. Hist. Review," Jan., 1922, p. 243.

Isaac McCoy - Probably the most influential of the early missionaries of this frontier, and a man of many activities and talents. His journal and many volumes of his papers are among holdings of the Kansas State Historical Society. A short account of his life was presented in 1961 when the site of his farm was marked. See "Jackson Co. Historical Soc. Journal," issue of June, 1961.

Edward McCraw and wife, the former Louise Bynum - named as heirs of Pumphree Bynum. Other heirs named: Elizabeth (the widow); Patton A. Stovall and wife Sarah Ann (formerly Bynum); Gideon Hutchens and wf. Elizabeth L. Hutchens (formerly Elizabeth Bynum); Joel E. Crandshaw and Rebecca, his wife (the former Rebecca Bynum); and legal heirs of Wm. Bynum, deceased. (Deed Book O, p. 13)

John McKinney - This minister from Washington Co., Va., was in Oregon by 1847. See his affidavits in Oregon Donation Land Claims (Vol. 1, Claim No. 2102). See note on J. Kishler.

Rev. Jotham Meeker - Baptist missionary. His correspondence and journals are at the Kansas Historical Society, Topeka, Kans.

S. Morgan and Susan Melton - To this Editor, her name is Melton. Mellon is used in the Recorder's index. The latter name is not found in census schedules, but Melton is a well-known early name. Page 588 of the 1850 census has Samuel Morgan (28, shingle-maker, b. Ohio) and Susan (31, b. Ky.) and five children.

Moria (Morea?)- This unusual name is found in Sullivan Co. Tenn., where Ezekiel M. made a will in 1833 mentioning a son Josiah and involving Arkansas land secured as bounty for Ezekiel's military service. (Deed Book 11, p. 232, Sullivan Co., Tenn.)

Mormons - "The Mormons sent out early as missionaries to the Indians, Oliver Cowdery and Peter Whitmer, etc...as reported at a Church Conference in 1831....Wm. W. Phelps was sent soon afterwards to Missouri...Cowdery was a former school teacher of N. Y....Phelps a poet-journalist from N. Y.....Each was editor of 'The Evening and the Morning Star,' published in Jackson County." ("Mo. Hist. Review," Vol. 43, p. 319)

J. E. Meyer - Mary Nash - The Liberty (Mo.) Tribune, issue of April 4, 1846, mentions that Mrs. Mary Nash was "of Sni-Bar and mother of twenty."

John Nave and Sarah - The old records do not contain their marriage. The John R. Wear - Sarah F. Profitt record is perfectly clear as recorded in this compilation. A later index shows Wear crossed out and Nave substituted. The 1850 census (p.611) has John Nave (aged 23), Sarah (aged 18), and Wm. T.(4 mo. old).

Thomas Nevins - His will, dated 1868 and probated in this county, mentions "my present beloved wife Anna Isabel." (Bundschu Papers in Jackson County Historical Society library)

Elmira Noel - Elmira, aged 17, is found in the household of Jas. Nowel (p. 698 of 1850 census).

Hiram Northrap - H. M. Northrup appears on p. 465 of the 1850 census. He was 32, a merchant born in N. Y. His wife was Margaret, aged 20, born in Ohio.

J. Glass and Polly P-----. Solution of bride's name not found in census, etc. The name Pulket appears often in adjacent Cass Co., however, as does the name of Willis Young, who performed this marriage.

Elder Francis R. Palmer - Born in S. Carolina, 1789; moved to Sumner Co., Tenn. Was in War of 1812. To Missouri in 1836 and to Clay Co. (Mo.) in 1866, etc. (Hodges, p. 2.)

H. P. Parker - One index in the Recorder's office lists groom as Hingate J. Parker.

Jacob Parks and Abigail (-------). Her surname could be Pow (or Poe) or Low or Boothe. The word Boothe is clear. However, these records often say "Mr. X and Miss Y, both of this county." It is not possible for this compiler to say whether this was the intention of this clerk. Even after checking census schedules, deeds, etc., no real support for any of these names has been found. A more recent version in what this Editor calls the "newer index" has the groom's name as Parker, and the bride's name is given as A. Pow Boothe.

Thomas Peers, aged 24, a blacksmith born in N. Y., is on p. 485 of the 1850 census.

E. T. Peery - The 1850 census (p.465) shows him as aged 48, born in Ky., recorded with Mary (aged 38, b. Va.) and seven children, six of them born in Indian Territory.

Sylpha Ann Philpotts - This the way Hiram Bowman, the clergyman, has it in his records.

John W. Polk(e) - "son of trader Robert Polke of Pottawatomie Cr., Kans." (Kansas Hist. Quart., Vol. 29, p.343)

Porter, Rev. James (1786-1851). See Vital Historical Records, p. 274, for story of his mother's imprisonment by British during Revolution.

Peter Powell and Nancy Lians(?) - Affidavit in Oregon land records gives date of marriage as Oct. 7, 1843.

W. Priestly and Eliza A. Slater - He was a wagon maker, aged 24, b. Tenn.; she was 17 and b. Ill. (See 1850 census schedule, p. 457).

Greenberry Ragen (Ragan) - The 1850 census records the name of his wife as Jane. (See "Jackson County Hist. Soc. Journal," issue of July, 1965, for more on family.)

William Ray - Tradition has it that the man whose name is carried by Raytown (in this county) was a blacksmith. This Wm. Ray was a blacksmith, shown by 1850 census (p.557) as living then in the center of a neighborhood now called Raytown. He is reported as being aged 42, born in Ohio, with Alice, aged 38, and born in Virginia. By 1852, Wm. Ray, wife Alice, and several related Prines and Dailys were all in Oregon. (See Oregon Donation Land Claims, Volume 2.)

Revalette - Indexed in oldest record book as Pierre Reaulette. Vital Hist. Records lists births of several children to Peter Revalet and wife Maria Louisa Roy. However, early deeds are in name of Pierre R.

Enoch Rice - father of Martin Rice, the "Sage of Lone Jack." (See Jackson Co. Hist. Soc. Journal, Fall issue, 1966)

Selithy An Rider - In his records, Hiram Bowman calls her Saletha.

Locothie M.C.C. Rubey - See grooms named Cockrell and Hansborough. Who really married this bride-of-many names? Vital Hist. Records (p.301) has "Lucothoe M., wf. of B. E. Hansborough, dau. of J. and M. Rubey,"--buried at Kansas City's Union Cemetery.

Thomas Rule - active in Pleasant Grove Church in Independence (Vital Hist. Records, p. 29)

M. Simmons - This might be Madison Simmons (aged 33, b. Ky.) with four children (the eldest 9) --as on p.496, 1850 census. However, no wife's record is with them, and we still do not know her given name (if this is the right family).

R. D. Stanley - d. 1864, buried Carroll Co., Mo. (Vital Hist. Records, p. 59)

Narcissa (Stewart) - The bride's surname before marriage defeats this compiler. It seems as if Stewart has been recorded with some other name scribbled over it. It resembles Sullivant. Vital Historical Records, page 22, has William and Narcissa Stewart applying for membership in Westport Baptist Church. Page 1002 of Hist. of Jackson Co., Mo., gives her maiden name as Stewart.

Rev. Nathaniel Talbot - followed Rev. Jerome Berryman at Kickapoo Mission in 1850's. ("Indian Missions," un-paged)

Wm. Tailor (Taylor) - Indexed in oldest books as Claiborne, which this compiler cannot accept. A later index (typed) has Tailor written above. Search of Probate Court records reveals that W. L. T's estate was being administered in 1845 by Zenos Leonard, neighbor of these Toomeys, McClellans, Walkers, etc. who lived near Ft. Osage.

Former Tennesseeans: - Wm. N. Bowers, Thomas Linville, Chas. Lovelace, Abraham V. Nave, etc., are said to have come from Carter Co., Tenn. (Editor's correspondence.)

Townson - According to an affidavit by Hannah Townsend, James Townsend, her husband, died in Missouri, but she went on to Oregon, taking up a land claim there. ("Oregon Land Claims," no. 4172, in Volume 1.)

F. Vanbeckenborne - He is referred to as Charles F. Van Quickenbourne in Catholic Beginnings in Kansas City, Missouri (p.19).

D. Hodges and T. Vance - Thomas as given name of the bride? No doubt about it--even though her name appears as Frances M. Vance in a later index.

Thomas Vaughn, aged 20, birthplace Kentucky, is on p. 520 of the 1850 census of Jackson County. With him is Ann Vaughn, aged 16, birthplace unknown.

Joel Walker - first Justice of the Peace in the county; brother of Joseph Reddeford Walker, noted mountain man who showed Fremont the pass into California. Joel and his brother were pioneers into California, also. Earlier generations of these Walkers are the subject of Mrs. Emma Siggins White's Genealogical History of the Descendants of John Walker of Wigton,Scotland.

W. W. Wallace and L. Guthry - She is indexed in Recorder's book as Genthry. Louise Guthrie, aged 16, is in the household of John Guthrie (p.541 of 1850 census). No Genthry nor Gentry family is listed in 1850 census.

Elvira Weair - The 1850 census (p.557) shows Elvira Weir, aged 21 and b. in Tenn., in the house of James Weir (48, born Tenn.) and his wife Wineford (42,b. N.C.)

David Weir - Found on p. 651 of 1850 census - aged 66, b. in Va., U.S.P. Minister; wf. Elizabeth was 56. Five others are recorded in the household - ages 14-34.

Leven P. Wills (Wells?) - blacksmith, aged 39 and born in Va. See p. 480 of 1850 census schedule.

Samuel Weston - His will (Book L.,p.88 of Probate Court records) names son Robert, dau. Agnes Modie, dau. Sarah (wf. of Chas. E. Strode) and "my brothers James and Robert McCutcheon, my sister Nancy Nicholson, etc." (Bundschu Papers) (The life story of Weston is an absorbing tale, reaching from Europe to the frontier and involving a change in his name.)

Orange Wilcox - See p. 458 of 1850 census, this county, where he is listed as aged 22, blacksmith born in Pa., with wife, Hannah, aged 23, born in Virginia.

Elizabeth Williams - Hiram Bowman's record gives this bride as Mrs.

Wright and Jane Heath - The old record is unmistakenly Bright. This 1850 census record seems to apply (from p. 586): Jane Wright (aged 24), Edward (25), Ophelia (2), Richard (5) --all in the household of Wm. B. Heath (61, born in Ky.) The 1840 census schedule has the households of John and Jacob Wright, the latter with a large family.

Cornelius Yager - Not found in 1850 census. The 1840 census (p.8) has him as Yeager.

Sarah J. Young - The 1850 census shows her (p. 546) as aged 33, born in Tenn., in the household of J. Patten. With her are Albert (9) and Thomas J., aged 2.

Jane H. Fulkerson - Born July 9, 1815, she was the daughter of Richard and Susanna (Livingston) Fulkerson of Washington and Scott Counties, Virginia. (Editor's correspondence)

David Reed and Tiny Brock - Theirs is the first marriage recorded in the county but not the first performed.

D. G. Butterfield - Later records should be found in Cass County.

MARRIAGES NOT RECORDED HERE

As one delves into the beginnings of the county, he discovers that a few early marriages performed in the county were not recorded in the county archives. These were principally French, involving less than a half dozen couples. The traveling priests, often on a tour of inspection, chose to deposit the record at St. Mary's College, St. Mary's, Kansas. (During the summer of 1967, that institution transferred its work and records to St. Louis University.) The following two references discuss this early period:-
